Today's Message Notes . . .

So graceFULL we have become repentLESS

1. Three Warnings

2. The Beauty and Danger of being GracFULL

- Unmerited and undeserved favor
- Taking advantage

3. How to avoid being repentLESS and the abuse of grace

- Repentance defined: change of mind and direction
- The stark reality of our humanity:
 - Thinking more highly of ourselves
 - Self will in the heart (a will contrary to God's)
 - Desire of the flesh
 - Desire of the eyes
 - Pride
 - Attitudes that are contrary to LOVE
Jealousy, envy, undue criticisms, hatred, anger, bitterness, resentment, revenge, covetousness
 - Words
Cursing, swearing, crude jokes, backbiting, gossip, lies
 - Sins of omission
- If this is the case, the intimacy of relationship can be affected if there is no repentance
- Repentance for believers in scripture:
 - II Cor 7
 - Revelation 2,3

4. Our response

- Recognition of the immensity of Grace!
- The Consistent practice of a true heart of repentance

 WOMEN'S DAY OUT

Saturday May 7th at 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Creekside Community Church "The Bible is strong on gardening. Whether in Genesis, Jeremiah or the Gospels, gardens play a prominent role in God's plans. It even starts in one. A garden is a wondrous place where we can "meet" with the Lord and marvel at His miracles. It's a place to love your neighbour, care for creation and grow veggies." A Rocha

COMPASSIONATE HOPE

This last month I was in Thailand for about three and a half weeks, and six members of our next generational team and leadership were with me. We visited all of our Homes of Hope there in Thailand, and we found them in a wonderful place, considering that it's been two years since we have been there. They, like us, have been dealing with COVID-19, and it has not been easy to get food supplies and the things they need, and education and schooling services have been up and down. And yet we found the leaders, the children, the rescued ones, and homes still full of love, and safe. The power of the gospel is working, their physical needs are being met, healing is continuing to take place, and restoration and a good quality education are still moving forward.

While in Thailand, we gathered many of the leaders together, and some significant things happened there.

They shared with depth and compassion, and brokenness. There was a gentle assurance of the Holy Spirit that this work was not initiated or centered around me. But God initiated it, and God had a past, a present, and a significant future plan for these Homes of Hope and Villages of Hope in Thailand.

So as I returned home, I was delighted at how God has provided in the past and is now providing both spiritually and physically. He will continue to provide shepherding, leadership, and finances. I'm ever so grateful for every brother and sister and partner and organization that we have, who have embraced at the heart level to love, pray, give, and some to go, to help support these rescued ones at these Homes of Hope. Finally, our fundamental, greatest passion for these Homes of Hope is that these young ones would come to know the Lord Jesus Christ
