Today's Message Notes . . .

He's Holy so Be Holy!

1 Peter 1:1-21

"Every time we sin, we are doing something God hates. We need to cultivate in our own hearts that same hatred of sin God has."

"The serene beauty of a holy life is the most powerful influence in the world next to the power of God."

The Meaning of Holiness

Larger idea is SEPARATE - OTHER (not normal, not like the rest)

What this means to us:

Our modern problem – Have we lost a vision of the OTHERness of God?

This loss of the OTHERness of God is reflected in our own lives here.

I. Chosen and called by God to be Holy

- Ephesians 1:4 – Chosen to be holy
  - I Peter 2:4-9
  - That we should be – our position
- 1 Thess. 4:7 – Called in holiness
  - We are in an environment of Holiness

II. Command to holiness

- I Peter 1:16 – Be Holy for I am holy
- Lev 11:44 –
  - Consecrate yourself – dedicate yourself to holiness
- How can I be Holy?
  - I Peter 1:18- Blood of Christ
  - I Peter 1:22-25 – The eternal Word of God

- Helen Blackburn asks us to continue praying for a mission-minded couple to hear God's call to help with the EFC Bolivian ministry to boys in San Andres
- From <https://cbwc.ca/category/making-connections/> "Scripture says that 'the heart is deceitful'. Perhaps we should acknowledge this more readily. We are often blind to what is stirring the pot, what is making us agitated, or what gets us riled up. Looking back each one of us can see the plots where we were on the wrong side of a discussion. That would be several times over for me personally.
May God help us to see more clearly where we need to repent, apologize, calm down, grant grace, and start from scratch. God says we are to love our enemies. If we could even get a small slice of that in our hearts in conflicted situations, we could likely come out honouring God more and living with outcomes more easily."
Your co-worker in the conflict, Dennis Stone
