Today's Message Notes . . .

That's What the Cross is for... I Peter 2:24, 24

I. Theology of the cross

1. Insight into the character of God
2. Love for God
3. A desire for Holiness
4. Keeps us from falling prey to soft doctrine
5. It is the place where all the wounds of sin are healed

II. The Cross of Jesus saves us from the Penalty, Power and Presence of sin

- A. Penalty of Sin v. 24a
- He was cursed for us – on a tree
 - Duet. 22:21, 23; Galatians 3:13
 - He Bore our sins

 This should show us that God does not take sin lightly **

- We have 2 responses:
 1. Bear our sin and the justice of God on our own
 2. Accept what Jesus did

PRACTICAL:

1. Those who have sinned against you
2. Those who have sinned and turned to Christ
3. We must see everyone in need of Christ

- B. Power of Sin v24b, 25
1. The power of sin has caused us to continually stray
 2. Death and new life are required for deliverance from the power of sin
 3. Power of sin requires the ongoing care of the Shepherd

- C. The Presence of Sin

- III. For Deliverance to come we must TURN to Christ
- The exchange of masters
 1. Self
 2. Lord Jesus Christ

Helen asks for prayers for Bolivia as insurgents want complete Socialism in the country. Bolivia is also struggling with the 4th wave of Covid 19, so things are “really desperate” right now. Also for staff, for the boys with their school work, and for safety and wisdom for Helen and the staff. Well over retirement year in Canadian terms, Helen never retires in God's work around the world.
